

Vendig AB acquires the belt weigher operations from OJ's Vågssystem AB

Vendig AB has today signed an agreement to acquire the assets and operations of OJ: Vågssystem AB.

The operations are leading in the niche belt weigher operations. Sales amounted to approximately SEK 10 million for the financial year 2017-18.

"With belt weighers from OJ's Vågssystem, we broaden our offering in conveyor components and increase our digitization through OJ's much-liked production support, smartTONNES. Vendig and OJ's Vågssystem have the same philosophy when it comes to fast service and affordable products for all customers. We look forward to work together with Conny Koroll, who will change to a role as business area manager, belt weighing systems within Vendig." Comments Sören Bergsten, CEO of Vendig AB.

"I see Vendig as a strategic, long-term owner who together with me can further develop the belt weigher offer internationally and continue to care for our strong customer relations in the Swedish market," says Conny Koroll, CEO of OJ: Vågssystem AB.

Vendig AB is a leader in belt cleaners and conveyor components for the Nordic bulk handling industry and is part of Lagercrantz Group division Niche Products.
